Beautifully maintained home with fantastic curb appeal and a sparkling backyard pool! This inviting residence features a charming blend of brick and siding, mature landscaping, and a welcoming covered entry. Inside, natural light pours through the large front windows, creating a warm and open feel. Step out back to your own private oasis, an in-ground heated pool surrounded by lush greenery, thoughtful landscaping, and a shaded gazebo perfect for relaxing or entertaining. A concealed area in the corner of the backyard provides storage space for pool equipment, lawn and garden tools, and much more. Inside, the house projects a warm, welcoming atmosphere. From the foyer entrance, you enter the living room and enjoy the natural lighting from the sunlight that streams, Click "Read More" through casting a golden glow on the engineered hardwood flooring. The kitchen offers a well-equipped and functional layout, outfitted with a generous amount of oak cabinetry, while the granite countertops offer ample workspace. A center island provides additional prep area and accommodates seating for two at a convenient snack bar. The ceramic tile flooring adds durability and easy maintenance. A pantry completes the space by extending storage for groceries and kitchen essentials. Adjacent to the kitchen. An inviting breakfast nook sits just off the kitchen, offering peaceful views of the sparkling swimming pool. It's the perfect spot to ease into the day - enjoying a cup of coffee while looking out over the serene backyard oasis. A bright and inviting Florida room can be accessed from either the breakfast nook or the family room. This room boasts expansive windows that fill the space with natural light and provide relaxing views of the outdoors. The ceramic-tiled flooring offers durability and easy maintenance, while the mini-split system ensures year-round comfort, making this the perfect spot to unwind or entertain. Dramatic vaulted ceilings, plus the benefit of a Barton-built quality construction home, presents the signature brick fireplace framed by custom built-in shelves on both sides, creating a warm, inviting focal point for the family room. The spacious master bedroom features elevated ceilings and a wall-mounted TV, creating a comfortable and relaxing refuge. Sliding glass doors reveal a spa room that completes the suite, offering a calming escape to let the day's tension drift off. The master bath features a relaxing soaking tub with integrated armrests, a long double vanity for ample counter space, a separate water closet, and a walk-in shower providing both convenience and comfort in a well-designed layout. The first-floor laundry room is highly functional, featuring overhead cabinet storage and a utility closet perfect for keeping mops, brooms, and a vacuum organized. An additional refrigerator provides extra space especially handy during the holidays for storing leftovers. The "Big-foot" floor plan awaits upstairs with three sizeable bedrooms with a full bathroom and an open loft overlooking down to the family room. This house isn't just any house - the craftsmanship embodies quality construction in this Rockywood Estates neighborhood, featuring sidewalks, street lights, and underground utilities, while the home delivers comfort, charm, and a resort-style retreat! With easy access to schools, shopping, entertainment, Destin, and other local cultural attractions. Walking distance to "The Crossings" which
