Detached Single Family on 0.27 Acres

WATERCOLOR, Santa Rosa Beach, FL

Positioned on one of the largest - if not the largest - homesites in all of WaterColor and thoughtfully brought to life through a collaboration between renowned architect Geoff Chick, the homeowner, and Cara Richardson of award-winning Lovelace Interiors, 191 Sand Hill Circle is a residence defined by intentional elegance, architectural integrity, and elevated livability. Framed by a peaceful pocket park in front and the preserved beauty of the state forest behind, this 8,314-square-foot estate stands as one of the community's true masterpieces. Every detail of this seven-bedroom, seven-and-a-half-bath home has been artfully curated, from Venetian plaster walls to a whole-home Control4 system that manages lighting, sound, climate, and security. Custom artisan lighting, curated furnishings, and dramatic accents, such as original works by award-winning artist Mary Hong, create a home that is both visually striking and deeply livable. Each bedroom features an ensuite bath with dual vanities, custom tile from Q-Tile, and high-end, bespoke bedding.

The chef's kitchen is outfitted with Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances, complemented by a butler's pantry with a second oven and dishwasher. Three laundry rooms ensure effortless convenience, while the owner's retreat secluded on the second level features electric drapes, serene views, and access to expansive porches.

Outdoor living is equally refined. The resort-style pool is flanked by two covered pavilions: one side features a fully appointed outdoor kitchen and grill, while the other boasts a posh gathering area complete with a fireplace and TV. A full pool bath and lush, irrigated landscaping complete the setting, enriched further by elegant rain chains and peaceful sightlines.

The home also features a posh carriage house above one of two climate-controlled two-car garages, making it the only residence in WaterColor to offer this level of vehicle and guest accommodations, along with two additional parking spaces. Blending art, technology, and lifestyle and offered mostly furnished, including a GEM car and two electric bikes this exceptional property was honored as the cover feature in Florida Design Magazine. This is not just a home; it is WaterColor's most exquisitely crafted residence and a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to own a true generational estate on 30A.
