SEANEST VILLAGE, Santa Rosa Beach, FL

Creatively designed by architect Brian Stackable, this four-bed, four-bath home is one of just 47 homes within the gated community of SeaNest Village. Design company Colgan Simon added delicious interiors to create a comfortable home brimming with contemporary luxury. White oak floors and beams set the scene for the reverse floor plan, which boasts ten-foot ceilings and eight-foot doors. A private elevator carries you smoothly from the two-car garage and first-floor guest suites to the second-floor living room, re-imagined media room and the third-floor master suite. The home is designed for social entertaining and enjoying good times. Hang out with friends around the fully equipped wet bar before watching your favorite movies and sports in the home theater.
