WATERSOUND WEST BEACH, Santa Rosa Beach, FL

Welcome to 44 Sextant Lane in Watersound West Beach, a thoughtfully designed coastal residence overlooking a serene wooded preserve. This spacious home features wood flooring throughout, Thermador appliances, and a large walk-in pantry & spacious laundry room that enhances both functionality and style. The open living areas extend to a large screened porch complete with a gas fireplace and built-in grill, ideal for outdoor enjoyment year-round.

The floor plan offers two primary suites (one on the main level), guest suite, upstairs secondary living area, and two sets of custom built-in bunk spaces providing flexible sleeping and gathering options. Additional highlights include a second-level balcony with sun deck, a two-car garage, and generous storage throughout. This Regal Stephens built "Sandcastle Plan" features an incredible first floor primary suite (bedroom is 21 x 19) with spacious walk-in closet and french doors leading to the lovely screened porch overlooking the private preserve--no rear neighbors! The ensuite bath provides luxury with an oversized shower, freestanding tub, double vanities, water closet, and designer lighting.

Watersound West Beach is known for its private BEACH ACCESS via a scenic boardwalk through Deer Lake State Park, along with resort-style amenities including a heated/cooled community pool, parks, walking trails, putting green, fitness center, bike parking at beach, and security-gated entrance. This home is just a short stroll or bike ride to the beach, making it a true 30A coastal lifestyle opportunity. The BEACH ACCESS is a private perpetual easement so no crowds and no Customary Use worries! Whether you're searching for a primary residence, second home, or investment property, this home, offered beautifully furnished and appointed, delivers space, style, and location in one of 30A's most desirable communities. Call today for a private showing.
