Buyer incentives are available!

This beautifully updated four-bedroom, previously owner-occupied home has been thoughtfully enhanced by sellers who have recently relocated, offering a true move-in ready opportunity with genuine care behind every improvement.

Inside, you'll find a long list of 2024 upgrades that elevate both style and functionality, including new stainless steel appliances, updated ceiling fans and light fixtures, new bathroom sinks, Tully River 7mm oak laminate flooring, Kashmir White kitchen countertops, a stunning new backsplash, and a brand-new kitchen sink. These updates come together to create a clean, modern feel while maintaining the home's original character. The roof was replaced in 2020, adding additional peace of mind.

Originally built as the builder's model, the home showcases quality craftsmanship and has been exceptionally maintained over time. The well-designed layout maximizes every inch of space with an intuitive flow and no wasted areas, while the bright and airy interior provides a comfortable setting for both everyday living and entertaining.

The fourth bedroom offers flexible use--perfect as a home office, playroom, guest room, or hobby space.

Situated on a generous 0.27-acre corner lot south of I-10, this home is tucked within a quiet, looped neighborhood and is just a short walk to Antioch Elementary. The outdoor space offers both privacy and functionality, featuring a portable gazebo ideal for entertaining and a storage shed for tools and equipment, with plenty of room remaining for gardening, recreation, or future enhancements.

With thoughtful updates, proven upkeep, and a location that balances convenience with tranquility, this home stands out for all the right reasons.
