Detached Single Family

Redstone Commons, Crestview, FL

Motivated Seller! Just minutes away from dining, shopping, hiking trails and the emerald waters of the gulf coast. Built in 2019, this beautiful 2157sq ft all brick home comes with granite counters, walk in pantry, and a full stainless steel kitchen suite. To make the transition even smoother, it also comes with a full size washer and dryer installed. The master suite is its own getaway with 2 walk-in closets with professionally installed organizers. The master bath gives ample space for those busy mornings with 2 sinks and matching mirrors. The seller is also including a mesh wifi system to help keep everyone online together. Feel safe with an up to date home security system and smart home features. Relax on the large covered back porch or take advantage of the private community pool and playground to keep the family entertained. Or host parties at the clubhouse with outdoor seating and grilling. And for your furry family members there is a community dog park as well. This home has been excellently maintained and is ready for its new owners. Make an offer today!
