Detached Single Family on 0.79 Acres

NO RECORDED SUBDIVISION, Navarre, FL

Custom built and proudly offered for the first time by its original owner, this exceptional East Bay waterfront home is the kind of property that rarely becomes available. Homes like this are often treasured for generations, making opportunities like this few and far between. Set on a beautifully landscaped .79-acre lot with 90 feet of bay frontage, this meticulously maintained 3-bedroom, 3-bath residence offers lasting craftsmanship, privacy, and a waterfront lifestyle that is becoming increasingly difficult to find.

Inside, you'll find bright, inviting living spaces filled with natural light thanks to the home's desirable southern exposure. The thoughtfully designed split-bedroom floor plan provides comfort and privacy, while the pride of ownership is evident throughout every room. Step outside and experience everything that makes waterfront living so special. Watch dolphins play in the bay, launch your boat or paddleboard from the impressive 175-foot dock complete with a boat lift, or spend the afternoon relaxing beside the pool featuring a 4-year-old liner. Towering mature trees frame the property and create a natural sense of privacy from neighboring homes, while the beautifully maintained, mostly cleared .79-acre lot provides the perfect balance of open green space and a peaceful natural setting.

Recent updates provide added peace of mind, including a new roof and a two-year-old water heater. The home also experienced no water intrusion during Hurricane Sally. Located in desirable southern Holley, you'll enjoy the tranquility of bayfront living while remaining just minutes from shopping, dining, schools, Navarre Beach, and Hurlburt Field. Whether you're enjoying your morning coffee overlooking the bay, watching dolphins swim by, spending the day on the water, or unwinding beside the pool, this is more than a waterfront home--it's a place to slow down, reconnect with nature, and enjoy the very best of life on the Emerald Coast.
