Beautiful 2-Acre Property with Expansion Potential in Freeport

Discover the peace and privacy of this beautiful 2-acre property in the growing area of Freeport, located on Red Barn Road and zoned Rural Village. Surrounded by mature trees and a serene natural setting, this property offers the space and flexibility to create the lifestyle you've been looking for.

The property has been transformed into a 2-bedroom, 2-bath home, with approved plans and development already in place to expand the living space and connect the home to the existing garage. Whether you're looking for a comfortable home now or envisioning additional space in the future, the possibilities are already underway.

Adding even more value, the 2-acre lot can potentially be divided into two separate parcels, providing additional flexibility for future development, investment, or family use.

Enjoy the tranquility of a spacious wooded setting while being positioned in one of Freeport's growing areas. Opportunities like this--combining acreage, zoning flexibility, existing improvements, and future potential--are hard to find.

Call today to schedule your private showing and explore everything this unique property has to offer. Don't let this opportunity get away!
