FL

UPDATED. GULF VIEWS. COASTAL CHARACTER.

Largo Mar 148 in Panama City Beach offers an updated one-bedroom layout with built-in bunk beds, one full bath, a half bath downstairs, and Gulf views from both balconies. The main living area opens through two sliding glass doors to the rear balcony overlooking the community pool with the Gulf beyond, while the upstairs balcony provides another Gulf view from the opposite side of the residence.

Inside, the condo features LVP flooring throughout, shiplap accent walls, an in-unit washer and dryer, and a bright coastal interior. The living room includes a sleeper sofa with washable covers, adding flexibility to the space. High-top Polywood furniture on the balcony creates a comfortable spot to take in the pool and Gulf views. The HVAC system was replaced in 2026, and the water heater dates to 2011.

Unit 148 is positioned just inside the gated community, with its assigned parking space directly in front of the stairs leading to the condo. The second-floor location offers added separation from ground-level activity, and an exterior door off the upstairs bedroom leads to a large outdoor storage closet and stairs providing convenient access toward the community amenities.

Largo Mar is a gated, low-rise beachfront condominium community in the South Lagoon area of Panama City Beach. With no elevators to wait on, the community offers straightforward access between the residences, parking, amenities, and beach. Amenities include private beach access, a Gulf-front deck with seating overlooking the dunes, a community pool, hot tub, shuffleboard, picnic areas, and grills. The community is also undergoing landscaping improvements to refresh the grounds. The location places Largo Mar near St. Andrews State Park, area dining, entertainment, and other attractions throughout the east end of Panama City Beach.

Largo Mar 148 brings together updated interiors, dual Gulf views, and a beachfront Panama City Beach setting in one distinctive condo.
